Near waypoint no.1

Near the park entrance you will find Queen Elizabeth's Jubilee tree.

Opposite Waypoint no.5

Wildlife meadow at St. Peter and St. Paul's Church yard.

Waypoint no.5

At the back of the library building, you will find a garden planted with native British plants from the 1600's.

Between Waypoint no.9 & 10

Either side of Wide Street, by the Hathern sign, you will find 2 trees; one was planted for the Diamond Jubilee of Queen Victoria and the other for Queen Elizabeth's Silver Jubilee.

Waypoint no.11

Inside the Dew Drop you will find framed photographs, taken by members of the Wildlife Group, from around the village.

Open 5-11pm today.

Waypoint no.12

Avederne Wood

Avederne is the first recorded name of Hathern, as recorded in the Domesday Book of 1086.

Once you have found all the animals, creatures, and plants, you can collect your certificate from either the Big Week Tent or the wildlife pond at Shepshed Rd allotments.

Good luck!
